

This general checklist to safe working practices is NOT a substitute for acquiring the statutory requirements and information from the relevant federal and state authorities and departments.

The information contained here is taken from the Scaffolding Advisory Standards Checklist 1999. The person(s) erecting, using, dismantling and maintaining Access Scaffolds needs to function with carefulness, commonsense and caution. Only a licensed scaffolder may erect a scaffold over 4 metres high.

Click here to download this document in PDF format (636 Kb)